

Remove the panel above the climate control

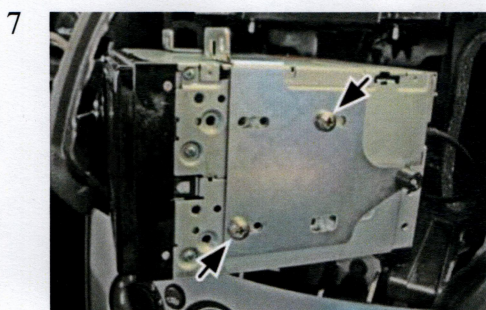

Remove the screws using a Torx T25

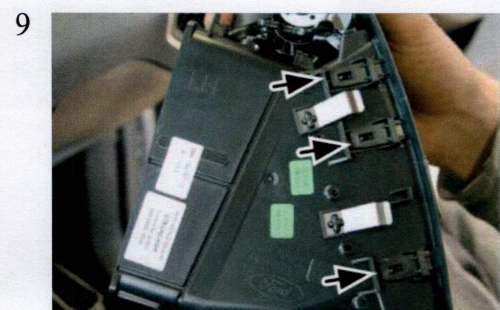

Remove the OEM panel using a plastic wig

Remove the original headunit using a Torx T25

Place the mounting brackets on the new headunit and place the headunit

Remove the original air vents and place those and the new panel

If the two button display is installed there is no trim required

If the color display is installed use the trim.

Replace the panel.